Pastoral Musings

Rev. Brenda L. Greenwald

(For those of you who were unable to join us Christmas Eve, I give you "A Very, MARY Christmas")

Merry Christmas! Oh, YOU thought I was EXCLAIMING "Merry Christmas" as in M - E - R - R - Y Christmas. No, no, no. I was exclaiming MARY Christmas, as in M - A - R - Y, as in Mary, the mother of our Lord.

The YOUNG woman, who conceived by the Holy Spirit, and gave birth to the Christ Child this night. THAT Mary. You see, here at the joint congregations of St. Stephen's and Gethsemane, well, we seem to have a perpetual issue...problem...predicament with our Mary.

The FIRST year I was Pastor, prior to any sort of pandemic, well, Mary was a little worse for the wear, as seen in this THIS photo! Yes, sadly, the mother of Baby Jesus, was sporting a rather large HOLE atop her head. Now, we tried our very best to REPAIR that hole, to PATCH that hole, heavens, to COVER UP that hole.

In the end?! It REALLY just made us stop and realize that the HOLE - INESS of Mary was not to be dismissed. Indeed, this young bride of Joseph carried with her this holiness, across the countryside, upon a bouncing donkey (at 9 months pregnant!) She carried this holiness to Bethlehem and back throughout Jesus's young years, as He grew in wisdom in strength.

We, too, get to walk alongside the Child as His wisdom strengthens in US. Through prayer, through worship, through sorrow and joy, our strength comes from God, who came to us as a baby. Mary carried this holiness with her, as she watched her little boy grow into a MAN, and gain QUITE the following. A following that WE are now a part of: a following gathered here on this holy eve, celebrating the story from thousands of years ago.

A story where there is ROOM for YOU, whether you warm a pew each week, whether this is your first time here, or whether you were nudged by Grandma to "Get in the car, we're going to church." Mary carried this holiness with her at the wedding party, where Jesus turned simple water into delicious wine. Imagine her awe at watching the same kid that once spit up over her shoulder, dazzle the wedding crowd with his FIRST Sign as he provided MORE than what was needed. WE receive more than WE need, each day, by a God who humbled God's self...and came down from the heavens, to dwell amongst us.

Now, mind you, the hole-y Mary from 2019 was only the first time I knew of Mary's troubles... The NEXT time I encountered the Mother of our Lord, well, as you can see, she was surrounded by CHAOS!

The men who surrounded her had completely fallen down on the job, not unlike what they did at the foot of the Cross. THEY had run away. while Mary stood her ground. THEY had gone into hiding while Mary was front and center, standing at the foot of the cross, beneath her son, to the very end. The SAME son whom we welcome this night. In a night where understanding the mysteries of God seems to be ungraspable, we're given a helpless, little human baby...that we . can . grasp.

From the moment the Angel Gabriel had visited Mary, she was holding the WORLD upon her shoulders, (although, if you look closely enough in the photo, she's really holding the WORLD upon her HEAD!)

Eventually, our outdoor manger was repaired, and the structure was re-built to sustain hurricane force winds and the shepherds and Joseph (and whichever Wise Men made it that year) were put back in their places, and the Nativity Scene was complete once again. But not without helping us ALL remember Mary's resilience when the storms of life really kick in.

Now, I'll be honest: I thought that's where the story would end. (Not, Jesus's Story - his is just beginning.) But rather, The story of "Mary's Miseries and Mishaps." But, alas, twas NOT to be! You see, I headed into work this past week, and imagine my dismay upon greeting the nativity Scene and seeing THIS!! The CROSS was still there, the STABLE was there. Even JOSEPH was still there....but, where, oh WHERE, was the Mother Mary?

Could we still have CHRISTMAS without Jesus's Mother being present? Was this a new poem?!? We all know about "Footprints in the Sand" poem...could this be a new version about "Footprints in the SNOW?!"

Well, "Fear not," said the angel, and "FEAR NOT", says your Pastor:

"When, what to my wondering eyes should appear...."
but Mary, in a pick-up truck, parked near the rear! (of the church)

For there the girl sat, inside that ole Ford, the One who birthed Jesus, the One who's adored.

Her presence was jarring, hilarious - true..... but WHAT does this mean now, for me, and for YOU?

Perhaps SHE'S the pick-up, the LIFTER of LOVE: she brought us the Savior, come down from Above.

Or maybe she's showing us shelter is found, inside of a faith that is shared all around.

Or....maybe, when trees and all presents are gone,
she hopes that to JESUS we STILL will be drawn.

The story, long-told, of a babe in the hay,
still matters to EACH one of US here today.

For Mary? She pondered these things in her heart,
For US? Well, the manger's a good place to start. Amen!

Meet you at the manger, dear Church, Fr. Brenda

Fellowship: Cheri

Finance Team: John, Cheri, Bob + Property Team: Cheri, John, Keith + Stewardship Team: Cheri

- Thoughtful, strategic conversation regarding our current state of financial affairs.
- Annual Meeting needs to include an exploration of WHY faithful giving has declined, WHAT will happen to St. Stephen's if this trend continues, WHO we can connect with to start re-giving, and HOW we are going to move forward in faith and trust.
- Letter received in mail from DTE outlined a cheaper partnership to provide our Gas needs.
 - After the Council Meeting, Cheri and Keith called Michigan Gas and Electric (MGE) first, to investigate whether they could match the offer and then connected with DTE to confirm the details of the offer.
 - It was determined that going with DTE instead of MGE as our supplier would save us a substantial amount of money per month. Council Members were quickly consulted, and the decision to make the switch was enacted by Cheri/Keith, who called DTE back to confirm. It will take 1-2 billing cycles for the change to take effect, there is NO requirement for a contract, and there is NO termination fee.
 - By the numbers:
 - Currently, we pay $0.896 for our gas costs via DTE + MGE
 - DTE letter offered $0.552 for switching to THEM as our supplier.
 - When Cheri & Keith called to inquire, DTE then offered us $0.507, an even better deal!

NEW BUSINESS

- Jason Niemi has once again connected with St. Stephen's in hopes of offering Karaté Classes inside our Church Fellowship Hall twice a week, with the option for an occasional, Saturday class. As before, we have happily agreed to rent him in the space, with the hopes that this time, he indeed does choose to offer the classes. Discussion included: noting that all Church business (funerals, weddings - even if scheduled at the last moment) will take precedence, monthly charge for renting space (which will include equipment storage), and the impact it might have on our heating costs (not too much if participants will be physically active.) John will touch-base with Jason to iron out details, with the hopes that he will actually begin Classes in January 2023.

Adult Faith Formation Class

Fridays in February 10:10 - 11:11am at St. Stephen's

This unit of study considers the third set of major characters in the Bible: Ruth, Samuel, David, and Elijah. The point of studying these stories isn't to peek under the dusty sandals of some people who died more than 3,000 years ago. The point is to meet the living GOD!

Enjoy this chance to walk with Ruth as she clings to Naomi and become a great-grandma to a king, and with Samuel as God makes a surprising choice, and with David as he rises in power and then takes a mighty fall, and with Elijah as he goes from magnificent victory to total burn-out. Through it all, we will listen for God's words of invitation and claim on us: "I am the Lord your God."
