Pastoral Musings

Rev. Brenda L. Greenwald

(For those of you who were unable to join us Christmas Eve..)

Merry Christmas, dear Church.

As we gather in the quiet of this hallowed eve, with the tree aglow, delightful decorations, poinsettias a-plenty, family squished next to you in the pew, the manger scene outside in place...

You know...yeah.....let's PAUSE for a moment, and talk about that Manger. Might I remind you that it has NOT been an easy path to set-up that manger!?!)

Year after year, we stumble into ONE adventure after another! I mean, WHO could forget the Winter of 2019, where THIS very HOLE-Y Mary was part of the scene.

Holy Mary was followed by THIS! Holy Hurricane-like winds of 2020, which blew right through our lives...and apparently? Right through the manger, too!

The story of "Mary's Many Miseries and Mishaps" was not even CLOSE to being over, because she went MISSING the next year...Only to be discovered - perfectly safe in the back of a pick-up truck seen HERE!

So, THIS year, we were DETERMINED to have our ducks in a row, or make that our Disciples and Devotees in a row. So, THIS year, as you can see.. Oh, for St. Peter's sake!!! THIS is what I found when checking out the Nativity THIS year: (And NO, I did not PUT them in this order...This is how I FOUND them!): A shepherd boy with 2 little sheep, a bunch of kings who don't technically arrive for another month (let alone the don't arrive for 2 more YEARS in the actual timeline). Don't miss timid Joseph, peeking out from 5th in line, and Mary and the baby, hiding behind it all!

Not only did it make me laugh, to, once again, see these characters, all hiding behind the church sign outside...But, it also made me think: might WE want to hide a little bit from the chaos and crazy of our OWN lives sometimes? All those squeaky-clean, calendars you might receive over the next few days, proclaiming the new year ahead, will QUICKLY be filled with appointments and practices, meetings and games. Each little, white square that stood so perfectly blank and clean...will be chock-full with details and numbers and names and places. Maybe, it's ok to take a moment every once in a while, to hide behind the strength of a shepherd, or to hide behind the wisdom of a king, or even to hide away with a tiny BABY.

NOW, thankfully, the Nativity Crew pulled things together, and we have a perfectly, delightful Manger Scene, as seen HERE. Kings in place, Mary, Joseph and the baby. Apparently, the SHEEP have garland this year – WHATEVER. The Shepherd Boy is in place with his mini-flock AND...

Wait a minute...!!! Please ZOOM in...

Zoom in ONE more time... LILLIAN ANN! How did YOU get into the manger!? Why, look at THIS – even Berkley can't believe her little Church friend found her way into the Manger!

OH, LILY! My goodness, there she is: all 3 and a half years of spunk, nestled between the Holy Family and the Shepherd Boy. Now, if you've heard me preach before, you've heard me say this phrase: Faith is CAUGHT more than it is TAUGHT. Meaning, kids (of ALL ages) catch on to the workings of a faith grounded in Jesus by CATCHING-ON to the words and songs and activities they see around them. They CATCH ON much faster and much deeper than if we sat those same folks down and simply bored them to death with teachings and tests. (And that's coming from a former elementary school music teacher!)

Faith is CAUGHT more than it is TAUGHT. Nobody made Lily hug the Shepherd Boy in the manger that day, it's just something she instinctively did. She REACHED OUT IN LOVE. Lily wasn't concerned with the hustle and bustle that WE place on that manger scene from so long ago. She wasn't concerned with the fact that "there was no room for them in the inn." She FOUND room, and jumped RIGHT into the story, something we Pastors try and encourage folks to do EVERY TIME you hear the word of God: WONDER where you would have FIT into some of those wild stories. Lily saw her place RIGHT THERE, in that little, make-shift, birthing room, right next to the Son of God and his family and friends. She jumped right in.

Church, it can be that simple. It can be that pure. When WE cast a worrisome shadow of panic into this ancient story, when we insert frantic anxiety over finding a place to give birth, when we cast our own FEARS on the story of that night in Bethlehem, we cheat ourselves out of CATCHING a little of that FAITH we're could have been FEELING all along! Take Verse 6 from our Gospel, for example. It says that "while they were there," Mary was ready to give birth. A better interpretation or translation, should really read "while they had been there for a bit.... Mary had the baby." Meaning, we can picture the family being settled a bit, instead of frantically running around, having just arrived, because Mary's water had just broken and the baby was coming. NOW. Whooooo. Slow it down a bit. Take the story in.

CATCH the faith of Joseph, knowing - TRUSTING, really, he'd find a place. When WE project our OWN concern over them being FORCED to go and participate in the Census, we rob ourselves of the not-so-hidden blessings that came out of this story of old. I mean, I'm NOT going to speak for a pregnant woman about the about the 90-miles it took to GET there, but perhaps the journey itself was a blessing,

Joseph was coming HOME to a whole bunch of people who'd were excited to see him, AND his partner was about to give birth. They had returned to his family's hometown so, you just KNOW.... "that there was an AUNTIE there, somewhere in the background, just prepping a warm blanket or 5 to swaddle the kid. I mean there was NO ROOM for them at the house, my GAWSH, but they weren't going to let the kid go COLD! "

CATCH the FAITH of a kid who doesn't judge the stable for not being a 3-story Barbie Dream House. (ICK). It's a bunch of wood nailed together (mind you, it's been fortified to withstand those hurricane-force winds we talked about earlier), but's it's simple wood. Providing simple shelter. For a simple family. And Lily just scooted right up to that family.

That's the ENTIRE POINT of Christmas, CHURCH: Scooting closer to Christ. Every one of you who came to this service tonight, whether you come every week (or were thrown into the family vehicle tonight!) took ONE little scoot, closer to Christ. ONE little scoot, closer to God. It's the whole reason God came to earth. God gave a child named Jesus to US on Earth, so that US on earth could be closer to God. As in, hands-on, totally-embraced, hugging-the-shepherd boy-next-to-you, kind of CLOSE.

Catch the faith of a kid who jumped into a manger this night: the cute one named Lily, who came to bring us JOY and the saving One named Jesus, who came to bring us LOVE. AMEN!

Pr. Brenda

The Advent Candles are lit and the Christmas Tree is decorated!

Children of all ages join in the fun of the season and share the Love of Christ!

Psalm 23 - "Shepherd's Psalm"

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.
2 He makes me lie down in green pastures;
 he leads me beside still waters; ³he restores my soul.
He leads me in right paths for his name's sake.
4 Even though I walk through the darkest valley,
 I fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me.
5 You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies;
 you anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.
6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD my whole life long.
