Pastoral Musings

Rev. Brenda L. Greenwald

Dear Church,

The words you see printed in this box were my LEAST favorite words as a kid. Not only had I just roused myself from a lovely, weekend slumber, but I had primped and curled my long hair, thrown on some fancy clothes...and now I had to be QUIET, too!?

“Let us take this time to quiet our hearts and minds and prepare for worship.”

But, alas, these were the VERY FIRST WORDS I would read in our weekly bulletin at Hope Reformed Church in Sheboygan, WI. Prepare for worship!? I wasn't in charge, so what more did I possibly have to do!? As a kid, I was clueless, But as an adult? Well, now I have a better appreciation for the GIFT of what it can mean to truly prepare to worship God. Perhaps we could all use a refresher!

1. Quiet your cellphones. Back when I was a kid, there certainly weren't any cell phones to quiet. Now, however, these handy-dandy little devices are demanding more and more of our time than is truly healthy. The temptation to check our e-mail during the service, or read that one funny article, or quickly send a message is overwhelming our desire to spend intentional time with God. Unless needed for an emergency situation or medical condition, let's tuck those phones away for a mere hour so we can concentrate on God's presence within us and God's people around us.

2. Quiet your minds. Ooof, another tough one. Our world rewards those who find new ways to multi-task. It gives extra credit to those who can get the most done in the shortest amount of time. Abandon ALL of that when you step into the worship space. Since our cell phone has already been quieted, now, it's time to turn off that never-ending machine known as our minds. Concentrating on God takes work and takes practice and takes ALL of our attention.

3. Quiet our hearts. We are reminded week after week that WE are the Church...AND...we intentionally come together each week to build upon those communal relationships we've formed with one another. While Fellowship Time (be it before or after the service) is an essential component of our time together, sometimes, our hearts just need to spend a little quiet time with God. Personally, I often found this to be true during two, distinct times of worship: right BEFORE the service begins, and once again, AFTER Holy Communion.

The Prelude music that is heard through the sound system is rarely over 60 beats per minute. Meaning, it's been selected to calm your pulse, center your soul, and quiet your hearts. Perhaps refraining from conversation during those opening moments of worship might better position us to receive all that God has to pour into our hearts that day. Same goes for right AFTER Holy Communion – a meal of grace, almost too amazing to comprehend. Spend a moment or two in quiet prayer, giving thanks for God's gift of Christ, giving so freely.

Quieting and preparing alongside you, Church.

Pr. Brenda

It's time for a NEW, Church Directory!

Memories Studios

Jenny Popelka, of Memories Studios in Menominee, will be visiting both Gethsemane and St. Stephen's in April of 2024 to take photos for our new, church directory!

Now, I would imagine there might have been 2 reactions to this news:

"YAY! Those pics will help me see who I've been talking to each week, and give me the contact information I was missing!"

OR "OH, NO! What will I wear? I look terrible in photos. Ugh, just use my old pic."

FEAR NOT, friends! Your Church Family (and, dare I say God) does NOT care if you wear your favorite jeans or fancy, dress clothes to this photo session. Nobody is going to remember if there was a hair out of place, or if the shades of green your family picked out weren't JUST right. They ARE going to remember being able to look up your name, and go "Oh, yeah! That was that helpful man from Sunday" or maybe "I think that was the lady I saw in town last week!"

A Directory CONNECTS folks, and so, we're updating ours! Get ready to say cheese!

PHOTO DAYS

- All photos will have a creamy, tan background (matches everything). This allows for everyone from both congregations to hopefully make it to at least ONE of the photo days.
- Plan on signing-up for a session on one of these dates at EITHER location:

Sunday, April 7th at Gethsemane after 9a worship – 1p
Sunday, April 14th at St. Stephen's after 10:30a worship – 2p
Sunday, April 28th at Gethsemane after 9a worship – 1p

- Photo sessions will take 5 minutes and include 3 poses: 1 for Directory, 2 of your choice
- Family pictures, Individual shots, animals all welcome
- Last-minute people could easily be squeezed-in, as she will stay as long as needed.
- Absolutely cannot make it these dates? Stop by her Studio in Menominee for a quick pic.
- Snowbirds invited to submit a non-professional, plain background, horizontal photo

FYI

- While EVERYONE needs to TAKE (or for snowbirds, submit) a photo, there is absolutely NO PRESSURE to purchase ANYTHING at ANY time.
- Pricing is similar to school or sports photos. An 8x10 photo is $12, two 5x7 photos is $12.
- $5 for a new Church Directory that will include both G + St members, along with updated, accurate addresses, phone numbers, and e-mail addresses. Available early Fall!
- More questions? Ask Pastor Brenda or even Jenny, herself: jenny@memoriesstudios.org, memoriesstudios.org

Planting the Seeds

Bishop Katherine Finegan

Dear People of the Northern Great Lakes Synod,

At the risk of getting too personal, I share with you that my mother joined the Saints Triumphant on February 11. As the deadline for this article is February 12, I cannot help but approach this task with thoughts of my mother at the forefront. In this year, as together we as a synod consider what it means to be a Seed Sower and what it means to plant, and as I make plans with my siblings to celebrate the life of my mother, I can think of no better example of one who planted seeds and one who witnessed the yield of seeds planted by others long ago.

My mother (+Lydia Anna Rittmann Volz+) was born in India in July 1932, the daughter of missionaries. She, along with her four siblings, was brought up in the faith. She was taught the love of Jesus, the value of compassion, and the expectation of sharing the love of God in a way that makes a difference.

The seeds of faith planted in her bore fruit as she became a nurse, the wife of a seminary professor, the mother of five children, and a generous giver of time, talents, and treasure. She sang in choirs, kissed scraped knees, worked church funerals and became a matriarch of her community of faith. She was a parish nurse at Luther Seminary and her church library was named after her in honor of the hours invested in cataloging, arranging, and gathering literature.

I could go on. But of course, it is the rare mother that doesn't inspire the accolades of her children. My mother was no exception. But in this season of Seed Sowers, I am grateful for the seeds of faith, and the example of generosity, that my mother gave me and all who knew her. She not only planted seeds but enjoyed the fruit of seeds planted by others. She witnessed the seeds planted by missionaries when years later, she returned to India to visit the church and seminary founded by my grandfather and others. She saw how many pastors, native to India, had graduated from that seminary and students that are attending. We give thanks for the churches that were planted and the people who came to know Jesus through their efforts.

And now? I invite you to consider what seeds of faith you are planting. Whether you are working to pass on the faith to the next generation, or enjoying the fruit of seeds planted long ago, I invite you to intentionally plant seeds for future faith, future ministry. This can happen in many ways: Volunteer; Share your story of faith with a stranger, doubts and all; Support a ministry effort with your financial gift; Share your story of faith with a loved one; Remember THE Church or Your church in your will; Work on your own discipleship; Take a class, go to church, invite a friend.

In this time of great change, I am grateful for the seeds of faith planted long ago, and the seeds of faith planted now which will bear fruit in the future. We are part of a great cycle of life, this shape of the Christian life that involves dying and rising, Good Friday and Easter, death and resurrection, planting and harvesting.

The spirit of my mother lives on in those who remember her, and the Spirit of the Living Christ lives as only the son of God can - to call, enlighten and sanctify those who gather and are sent in his name, to plant seeds that someone else will water, and someone else will harvest.

I give thanks for the blessing of my mother, and for all who have planted seeds of faith.

Yours in Christ,

Bishop Katherine Finegan

Daily Bible Readings, Year B

Year B focuses on the Gospel of Mark with more selections from the Gospel of John than any other year. The semi-continuous readings from the Old Testament focus on the covenant of David and Wisdom literature. The second, New Testament, readings are from 1 and 2 Corinthians, Ephesians, James and Hebrews.

I Cor. 11:17-33 - "Holy Communion"

¹⁷ Now in the following instructions I do not commend you, because when you come together it is not for the better but for the worse. ¹⁸ For, to begin with, when you come together as a church, I hear that there are divisions among you, and to some extent I believe it. ¹⁹ Indeed, there have to be factions among you, for only so will it become clear who among you are genuine. ²⁰ When you come together, it is not really to eat the Lord's supper. ²¹ For when the time comes to eat, each of you proceeds to eat your own supper, and one goes hungry and another becomes drunk. ²² What! Do you not have households to eat and drink in? Or do you show contempt for the church of God and humiliate those who have nothing? What should I say to you? Should I commend you? In this matter I do not commend you!

²³ For I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took a loaf of bread, ²⁴ and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, "This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me." ²⁵ In the same way he took the cup also, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." ²⁶ For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

²⁷ Whoever, therefore, eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be answerable for the body and blood of the Lord. ²⁸ Examine yourselves, and only then eat of the bread and drink of the cup. ²⁹ For all who eat and drink without discerning the body eat and drink judgment against themselves. ³⁰ For this reason many of you are weak and ill, and some have died. ³¹ But if we judged ourselves, we would not be judged. ³² But when we are judged by the Lord, we are disciplined so that we may not be condemned along with the world.

³³ So then, my brothers and sisters, when you come together to eat, wait for one another.

John 4:1-30 - "The Woman at the Well"

Now when Jesus learned that the Pharisees had heard, "Jesus is making and baptizing more disciples than John" ² (although it was not Jesus himself but his disciples who baptized), ³ he left Judea and started back to Galilee. ⁴ But he had to go through Samaria. ⁵ So he came to a Samaritan city called Sychar, near the plot of ground that Jacob had given to his son Joseph. ⁶ Jacob's well was there, and Jesus, tired out by his journey, was sitting by the well. It was about noon. ⁷ A Samaritan woman came to draw water, and Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink." ⁸ (His disciples had gone to the city to buy food.) ⁹ The Samaritan woman said to him, "How is it that you, a Jew, ask a drink of me, a woman of Samaria?" (Jews do not share things in common with Samaritans.) ¹⁰ Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God and who it is that is saying to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water."

¹¹ The woman said to him, "Sir, you have no bucket, and the well is deep. Where do you get that living water? ¹² Are you greater than our ancestor Jacob, who gave us the well and with his sons and his flocks drank from it?" ¹³ Jesus said to her, "Everyone who drinks of this water will be thirsty again, ¹⁴ but those who drink of the water that I will give them will never be thirsty. The water that I will give will become in them a spring of water gushing up to eternal life." ¹⁵ The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I may never be thirsty or have to keep coming here to draw water." ¹⁶ Jesus said to her, "Go, call your husband, and come back." ¹⁷ The woman answered him, "I have no husband." Jesus said to her, "You are right in saying, 'I have no husband,' ¹⁸ for you have had five husbands, and the one you have now is not your husband. What you have said is true!"

¹⁹ The woman said to him, "Sir, I see that you are a prophet. ²⁰ Our ancestors worshiped on this mountain, but you say that the place where people must worship is in Jerusalem." ²¹ Jesus said to her, "Woman, believe me, the hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. ²² You worship what you do not know; we worship what we know, for salvation is from the Jews. ²³ But the hour is coming and is now here when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father seeks such as these to worship him. ²⁴ God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth." ²⁵ The woman said to him, "I know that Messiah is coming" (who is called Christ). "When he comes, he will proclaim all things to us." ²⁶ Jesus said to her, "I am he, the one who is speaking to you." ²⁷ Just then his disciples came. They were astonished that he was speaking with a woman, but no one said, "What do you want?" or, "Why are you speaking with her?" ²⁸ Then the woman left her water jar and went back to the city. She said to the people, ²⁹ "Come and see a man who told me everything I have ever done! He cannot be the Messiah, can he?" ³⁰ They left the city and were on their way to him.
